

Make your Ritual Drum

A healing retreat to create your instrument of sacred sound

Wentworth Falls, Blue Mountains

Friday evening 16 March to Sunday afternoon 18 March 2012

The drum making process is sacred – you take the skin of a once living being, the wood from a once standing tree. You bring them back to life in a new form, and as your drum is born, you're moved and shaped within yourself.

There is a limit of four on this very special women's retreat. $300 deposit is required to secure your place. This retreat is offered only once a year – don't miss out.

Maria Kinder is a simple and beautiful retreat centre whose grounds back directly onto the magnificent walking tracks and lookouts of Wentworth Falls. There will be time for walking and resting in the deep beauty of nature.

Fully equipped kitchen, open fires and cozy single beds.

The cost of $625 includes

- full red deer rawhide
- hand made 9 sided solid timber drum frame
- all tools and materials
- one on one tuition
- 2 nights accomm – option to stay 3rd for extra $40
- Friday evening soup - morning and afternoon teas
